Title 28 EDUCATION

Part LI. Bulletin 1963—Louisiana Arts Content Standards

Chapter 1. General Provisions

§101. Introduction

A. The arts—dance, music, theatre arts, and visual arts, are fundamental to the intellectual, social, emotional, and physical development of Louisiana students in the twenty-first century. The arts draw on a range of intelligence, aesthetics, and learning styles not addressed in most educational environments.

B. Students of the arts are encouraged to use their imaginations, to develop personal discipline, and to find multiple solutions to problems. They learn to respond to events and experiences with confidence and to communicate their feelings and viewpoints through appropriate creative outlets.

C. Business demands workers who possess an ability to communicate, to be flexible, and to diagnose problems and find creative solutions. The arts preceded speech as man's first language; they assisted in the development of the skills of communication and the integration of basic skills of reading, writing, science, and mathematics. These skills help students shape their lives, their communities, and their nation. The arts make all subjects come alive.

D. The Louisiana Arts Content Standards bring together the basic content of the four disciplines of dance, music, theatre arts, and visual arts, into one common set of standards essential for a comprehensive arts education. The twenty-first century, the age of information, requires more from the next generation of students. The relevance of education in a rapidly changing society will depend on converging the aims of education and the workforce for well-rounded, educated students who will be productive members of society. The arts will assist in the achievement of these aims with the implementation of these rigorous and challenging content standards.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 17:24.4 et seq.

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Education, Board of Elementary and Secondary Education, LR 30:209 (February 2004).

§103. Standards of Arts Education

A. Creative Expression. Creative Expression is the ability to imagine, organize and interpret ideas for expression in the process of creating and producing art forms which involve inspiration, analysis, and problem solving.

1. Standard. Students develop creative expression through the application of knowledge, ideas, communication skills, organization abilities, and imagination.

B. Aesthetic Perception. Aesthetic Perception is the ability to perceive the unique characteristics of natural environments and human creations, to respond to aesthetic ideas and experiences, and to develop awareness of beauty and meaning in the arts.

1. Standard. Students develop aesthetic perception through the knowledge of art forms and respect for their commonalities and differences.

C. Historical and Cultural Perspective. Historical and Cultural Perspective is the ability to recognize the arts as a reflection of individual and cultural expression and to appreciate the aspects of history and human experience.

1. Standard. Students develop historical and cultural perspective by recognizing and understanding that the arts throughout history are a record of human experience with a past, present, and future.

D. Critical Analysis. Critical Analysis is the ability to interpret, analyze and synthesize the performing and visual arts to form judgments based on sufficient and appropriate criteria.

1. Standard. Students make informed verbal and written observations about the arts by developing skills for critical analysis through the study of and exposure to the arts.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 17:24.4 et seq.

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Education, Board of Elementary and Secondary Education, LR 30:209 (February 2004).

§107. Foundation Skills

A. The following foundation skills shall apply to all students in all disciplines. These foundation skills are listed numerically in parentheses after each benchmark in this Part LI.

1. Communication—a process by which information is exchanged and a concept of "meaning" is created and shared between individuals through a common system of symbols, signs, or behavior. To understand creative output in the history of the arts is to understand history itself.

Subchapter D. Critical Analysis

§331. Purpose

Subchapter C. Historical and Cultural Perspective

§921. Purpose

A. Focus. Historical and cultural perspective is the vehicle for understanding works of art in time and place. a poetic scientist, and a recorder of history. To understand creative output in the history of the arts is to understand history itself.

B. Standard. Students develop historical and cultural perspective by recognizing and understanding that the arts throughout history are a record of human experience with a past, present, and future.
