Immediately upon your eighteenth birthday, you will reach the age of majority in Louisiana. In accordance with provisions of the Individuals With Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), and Bulletin 1706: Regulations for Implementation of the Children with Exceptionalities Act, Subpart A, when an individual with an exceptionality reaches the age of majority and has not been determined to be incompetent, the local education agency shall provide any notice required by IDEA and Bulletin 1706 to both the individual and his or her parent(s)/guardian(s). All other rights, however, under the IDEA and Bulletin 1706, transfer to the individual.

The rights that were yours to support and plan for your education will transfer to you, who are now legally an adult.
